The petitioner states that he is in very poor circumstances & that a large family to support & prays that the remaining portion of his mother's pension (Rs 2) may be sanctioned to him for the benefit of his family members.

The Dressing Officer, Mysore, supports the statement of the petitioner in his letter regarding his "narrow" circumstances in life. (vide Dressing Officer's report dt 17-2-10).

Kind attention is also invited to Mr. M. N. Krishna Rao's notes in the file put up, wherein he has recommended that the petitioner may also be given Rs 2/- out of his mother's pension.

Submitted per orders.

When the pension was sanctioned to Fatima Bi the petitioner's claim was also brought out in the Bill by Mr. M. N. Krishna Rao vide "Minutes of the Recommendation (Ops) it is considered necessary to extend any concession to the two claimants, they may be given Rs 2 each for life from date of sanction." and in the order was passed granting Rs 2/- to Fatima Bi who had applied first, there being no application of the present applicant.

A portion of the pension was continued to Fatimabi as she was a widow in indigent circumstances. It was apparently disallowed in the case of the son (the present petr.) as it was thought that he ought to be able to support himself. These grants pensions have a tendency to pauperise their recipient & the sooner the pensions cease the better it will be for the men concerned the application may be rejected.

Petitioner :- Meer Mahamud, son of the late Hajiram Bi, residing in Lushkar Mohalla near Amildar Davoodkhan's House, Mysore.

Respectfully begs to submit

That the petitioner's mother the above said Hajiram Bi was in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs.4, out of the Mysore State pension of Rs.816-10-0 per annum granted for the maintenance of the members of Syed Hussain's family.

2. That as per orders of the Hon'ble the British Resident A. H. Cole dated 5th June 1822 the pension is being continued to the family so long as their conduct is conformable to the wishes of the British Government

3. That on the demise of the petitioner's mother, Fathima Bi, the widow of Syed Burahan, the petitioner's elder brother, prayed for the continuance of the said pension.

4. During the course of the enquiry of the said petition, the claim of the petitioner and his narrowed circumstances in life, were also urged.

5. That the petitioner now learns that the said Fathima Bi has been kindly granted a monthly pension of Rs.2, as per No.Fl 5475- S & A 196-09-2 dated 5th May 1910 from the General and Revenue Secretariat.

6. That the petitioner therefore most humbly and respectfully prays that his preferential claims, his indegent circumstances in life and the large family he has to support may be be favourably considered, and that the remaining portion of his mother's pension may at least be granted to him for the benifit of his family members.

7. For this kind and generous act the petitioner ever remains grateful and dutiful to your honor.

Your honor's most obedient and humble servant,
